What is HOLA?

We are a not-for-profit arts advocacy organization established in 1975 to expand opportunities for Latinos in the entertainment industry. We promote fair and accurate representations of Latinos in the entertainment and communications media.

HOLA is a nationally recognized advocacy organization providing casting services to the entertainment industry, talent recognition awards, technique improvement workshops and seminars for actors, career guidance and performance announcements.

HOLA's services are provided in part through support from the New York State Council on the Arts; The City of New York, Department of Cultural Affairs; corporate and foundation grants; private donations and membership fees.

New York State's First Lady, Libby Pataki (center), and Richard J. Schwartz (right), Chairman of the New York State Council on the Arts congratulate HOLA executive director Manny Alfaro (left) with the prestigious Governor's Arts Award.
